

Our Big Trip Blog Leaving Lincolnshire for Kyoto

Horizon at Sunset
A woodblock print by Tokio Miyashita

This print came to light when we closed a door we normally leave open in the summer because winter was setting in. We purchased it in Tokyo in the early 1980's, and it seemed an appropriate introduction to our winter trip which has begun in Japan this week. It also evokes inspirational books like 'On The Road' and 'The road goes ever on and on down from the door where it began.' from J.R.R. Tolkien's The Fellowship of the Ring – John has always thought of this as his 'heading off into the sunset' picture.

Our adventure this time will take us to Kyoto, Japan; New Zealand; Australia and Bali, Indonesia over the next three months, and we are excited! Along the way we will be sending some highlights and photographs, and look forward to sharing our experiences with you and getting your feedback, and hearing what you are up to.

Leaving Marigold:

Arrival in Kyoto

